limit, prohibit or restrict the Developer's continued development of the land contained in or previously contained in records of title 143621, 395424, 63739 and/or NL6C/1022 and shall not object to the emission, creation or movement of dust, smoke, noise or spray caused by or incidental to the Developer's continued development.

2. Unless the written consent of the Developer has been obtained prior to construction, any dwelling on a Burdened Lot shall be comprised of not less than two different types of external cladding with each cladding comprising a total of not less than 15% (in aggregate) of the total exterior cladding of the dwelling. The external cladding on the elevation visible from the roadside boundary shall in all cases be made up of no less than two different types of external cladding, two of which shall each cover at least 10% of the roadside elevation.

3. At any time which the Developer is a registered proprietor of a Burdened Lot, it reserves the right to itself (with the intent that the right is personal to itself and is not assignable to any successor in title) to waive or modify any or all of the above covenants with the effect that, at the election of the Developer, the covenants will not bind the Developer provided only that the Developer shall exercise such right only if, in its reasonable opinion, it is necessary to further the development of land contained in or previously contained in the records of title 143621, 395424, 63739 and/or NL6C/1022 (being the "Subdivision").

4. The Covenantor shall, at the request of the Covenantee consent to the vesting of any land owned by the Developer for the purposes of local reserve, road reserve or any other reason reasonably required by the Developer for the Subdivision, and shall immediately upon request grant such consent, sign all documents and do all such things as may be necessary to provide for the vesting of such land.

5. The owner of a Burdened Lot shall be responsible for and meet the costs of damage to landscaping, roads, footpaths, kerbing, berms, concrete works or other structure arising directly or indirectly from any actions by the Burdened Lot owner, its invitees or licensees or their employees or contractors. The Burdened Lot owner shall immediately reinstate or if necessary replace at their sole cost any such damaged items.

6. A construction bond of $5,000.00 will be paid to the trust account of the Developer's solicitors by or on behalf of each Burdened Lot owner before construction of a dwelling on the Lot commences. The bond shall be applied in rectification of any damage as set out in 5 above and held until completion of the dwelling and associated landscaping works even if the same are completed by a subsequent owner of the Burdened Lot. The owner will notify the Developer when all building and landscaping works have been completed and the Developer shall pay to the Burdened Lot owner the balance of the bond not otherwise applied in repair or remediation of damage described in 5 above.

7. The Developer shall not be required to contribute towards the cost of work on a fence between land owned by the Developer and any Burdened Lot.

8. All differences and disputes which may arise between the parties or anything touching or concerning any act or thing to be done suffered or omitted in pursuance hereof or touching or concerning the construction of these presents shall be referred to Arbitration in accordance with the Arbitration Act 1996 or any re-enactment thereof for the time being in force.
